

CORAL PRINCESS CRUISES

Australia, South Pacific

CORAL PRINCESS, and CORAL PRINCESS II

Passengers: 46, 50

Length: 115 ft.

Crew: Australian

- Itinerary: Year-round 3, 4 & 7-night Great Barrier Reef cruises in Australia from Cairns and Townsville including Dunk, Pelorus and Lizard Islands.
- Cabins: Cabins have twin or double beds, air conditioning, large windows, and private bathroom with shower.
- Dining: The dining room accommodates all guests in one sitting, tables are unassigned. Menus feature Australian and international dishes, Australian and New Zealand wines.
- Facilities and Activities: These are catamarans carry live aboard passengers on explorations of the Great Barrier Reef and other parts of Australia. The vessels are air-conditioned throughout. There is a lounge, library with books and videos, hot tub, a glass-bottom boat and zodiacs for exploring. A dive master and marine biologist are on board. There is an open bridge policy. There is snorkeling, scuba diving, walks in an island rainforest and a beach barbecue. Snorkeling and dive equipment are supplied. Introductory scuba experience is included with additional dives available..

OCEANIC DISCOVERER

Passengers: 72

Length: 207 ft.

Built: 2005

Crew: Australian, New Zealand

- Itinerary: New Zealand (5 or 12 nights), Papua New Guinea (12 nights), Melanesia (PNG, Solomon Islands, Vanatua, New Caledonia 13-15 nights), Vanatua (5 nights), Australia's Kimberley (10 nights) and across-the-top-of-Australia (11 nights).
- Cabins: 36. Cabins have twin or double beds, air conditioning, large windows, private bathroom with shower.
- Dining: The dining room accommodates all guests in one sitting, tables are unassigned. Menus feature Australian and international dishes and Australian and New Zealand wines.
- Facilities and Activities: This an expedition ship with lounges, hot tub, library, internet, a excursion tender and a fleet of zodiacs. There is an open bridge.